

Occult Ritual Transformation and Coronavirus: How Mask Wearing, Hand Washing, “Social Separation” and Lockdowns Are Age-Old Occult Rituals Being Used to Initiate People Into a New Global Order

by Steve Barwick | May 19, 2020

In previous Bible studies and commentaries, I've documented many times now that our global leaders today are largely occultists. (See here, here, here and here.)

So are the owners of many of our country's largest businesses and sports franchises. (See here and here.)

Even celebrities push occultism constantly. (See here.)

And quite frankly, many Christian churches have been infiltrated by practitioners of Kabbalah, which is a book of Jewish mysticism, magick spells, enchantments, man-made numerology and other esoteric and occult practices that the orthodox rabbis use in the course of their daily lives, and now teach Christian leaders to use, as well. (See here.)

So, with so many of the world's "top tier" leaders pushing occultism – including those enemies of Christ who run the four hidden dynasties of politics, education, economics and religion — it should come as no surprise to you that the entire global coronavirus crisis is replete with occult symbology and ritual occult initiation themes.

Indeed, as you'll see throughout the rest of this commentary, the entire manufactured coronavirus crisis is one giant, occult ritual from start to finish, divided up into four mini-rituals, each with the distinct occult purpose of initiation and transformation of the world and its people into a new global order.

So, let's start by examining the four distinct, but interrelated, occult rituals that make up this massive global occult ritual initiation ceremony:

1. Ritual Mask-Wearing
2. Ritual Hand-Washing
3. Ritual "Social Distancing"
4. Ritual Lockdowns

In the course of examining these four occult rituals, I'll do my best to explain to you how each one is part of an elaborate stage play designed to symbolically initiate the people of this world into their new positions in a new global order – a new order that rejects Jesus Christ and Christianity, and puts the people of this world under the ultimate control of a global elite whose god is the devil himself.

The Ritual Wearing of the Mask

Have you ever wondered why, in Revelation 17:5, Babylon is called “Mystery, Babylon”?

You already know that the word “Babylon” means “confusion.” But what does the word “mystery” mean? Here’s what the Strong’s Concordance tells us:

G3466 Musterion — From a derivative of muo (to shut the mouth); a secret or “mystery” (through the idea of silence imposed by initiation into religious rites) — mystery.

Don’t overlook that. The word “mystery” in the Bible has to do with shutting the mouth as one undergoes a secret religious initiation. Again, it’s: “the idea of silence, imposed by initiation into religious rites.”

Isn’t that interesting?

After all, at this point in time, 30 countries, including the United States, are now forcing their citizens to wear face masks over their mouths on a mandatory basis, ostensibly to help stop coronavirus infections.

This, even though numerous medical experts, including the Surgeon General of the United States, have openly stated that wearing masks has no beneficial effect whatsoever against coronavirus.

What’s more, numerous medical experts have attested to the fact that face masks can even be dangerous to one’s health in that they curtail clear thinking (and even consciousness) by trapping carbon dioxide in the chamber of the mask, forcing you to re-breathe it over and over, thus depleting your blood of fresh air and the life-giving oxygen component it contains.

So why are the powers-that-be, globally, forcing their citizens to wear these face masks, if the masks simply don’t work against coronavirus, and might very well be dangerous to your health? The answer might surprise you:

Masking has traditionally played a very important role in occult rituals.

Among other things, the wearing of the mask over one's mouth is a token of submission...a gesture of your willingness to be subject to others who are not your usual Sovereign.

But there's more. According to the Encyclopedia Britannica, mask-wearing is:

"A form of disguise or concealment usually worn over or in front of the face to hide the identity of a person and by its own features to establish another being."

In other words, the wearing of a mask represents an occult transformation — a human alchemy, if you will — from one role to another. From one manner of being, to another. Indeed, in this case, from individual sovereign under God to collective subject under the children of the devil.

You see, the masking ritual is specifically designed to reverse the order of hierarchy set in place by God Himself. In the hierarchy of your heavenly Father, you are a sovereign representative of His Word on this earth. And your job is to speak His Word, on His Sovereign behalf to others.

In other words, He's the King, you're a Prince of His kingdom, and your job is to carry His Word to others, so they too can get on board with it and return to the Father eternally, through Jesus Christ. As it's written regarding our primary duty as Christians:

II Timothy 4:2 — Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine.

In short, your job is to teach your Father's Word. And you must be ready and willing to do so at all times (i.e., "be instant, in season and out of season").

As such, you must always remain unmasked, because your job — in your earthly role as one of His faithful representatives — is to speak and explain His Word to others. And to do so, you must open your mouth. You cannot be muzzled. You cannot be masked.

Wearing the mask is a powerful occult symbol indicating your submission to another power other than the Creator God who gave you the direct commission to preach His Word to the world:

Matthew 28:18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

Matthew 28:19 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

Matthew 28:20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

So, in God's hierarchy, you're a sovereign representative of His Word on this earth. And your job is to spread that Word to as many others as possible in the course of your adult lifetime. But in the hierarchy of the ritualists, it's quite the reverse:

The entire point of occult ritual mask-wearing is to hammer home to your subconsciousness — until it becomes completely true in your daily life — the idea that things are no longer the same, and will never be the same again.

Masks hasten the suppression of ego to help facilitate the death of the old identity before the identification with, and the manifestation of, a new identity.

o a new order. But it's also a transformation of the self into a new position in that new order.

Under the sway of the occult ritualist, you, being mouth-masked, are no longer the person you used to be. You're no longer a designated mouthpiece of God on this earth. You're suddenly demoted and re-assigned to the position of obedient subject.

Symbolically, you become a serf in the new order. That's your new role...your new identity... as represented by the wearing of mask.

The wearing of the mask is simply part of the initiation ritual used to visually and psychologically signal your consent to this new arrangement. Yes, by wearing the mask, you're signaling your consent to accept a new and very different position in a new global order.

Instead of being a sovereign representative of the Most High God and His Word on this earth, in essence, you agree to become a willing subject — a slave — to the very enemies of God and His Christ.

Masked, you're now willingly serving the enemy's purposes, and no longer God's.

When you obediently put the mask over your mouth, you're symbolically saying to the ritualists, "I admit my words no longer have any purpose or relevance in this life. My sole purpose now is obedience to your words and commands."

And in raising themselves to the position of your new sovereign, and muzzling you like a dog in the process, they alchemically create a new you in a new role under new rulers. That's the alchemical transformational change involved in the ritual.

They're quite literally attempting to take the place of God in your life, and make you their willing subject. They're becoming your instead-of-Christ. Your antichrist.

And by placing the mask on your face, you're becoming their unwitting faithful servant. You're being ritually initiated into the new order. You may not realize it. But in occult magic, the victim doesn't have to be knowledgeable of the meaning behind what he or she is being told to do. The performance of the ritual itself – on demand — is all that matters.

So, who, exactly, is doing this to us?

1 John 2:18 — Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

You didn't think these "many antichrists" would sit around on their hands all day, doing nothing, in the final days of this flesh earth age while they're waiting on the return of their father the devil in his role as the false messiah, did you?

Naturally, they're softening things up for their god – Satan — before he gets here. They're using ceremonial occult ritual magic, on a global scale, to capture the entire world in their dragnet.

By wearing the mask, you're being symbolically and alchemically transformed — "reborn" — into their new global system, through occult ritual programming.

More from the Encyclopedia Britannica on ritual mask-wearing:

"The person who wears the mask is also considered to be in direct association with the mask's spirit force and is consequently exposed to like personal danger of being affected by it.

...Upon donning the mask, the wearer sometimes undergoes a psychic change, and, as in a trance, assumes the spirit character depicted by the mask."

Well, folks, the antichrist – the instead-of-Christ — is the "spirit force" of the mask we're talking about. You get that, don't you? He's the spirit behind the powers-that-be who are working to pull off this global coup.

And it's the powers-that-be who have masked, muzzled and demoted you to your new status of slave, on the behalf of their god, the devil himself.

The mask-wearing ritual is designed to posses you with the spirit of subservience to your new overlords, who are the "many antichrists" of 1 John 2:18.

And it sets you up to do the same when the antichrist arrives and offers his actual "mark," which we'll examine at the end of this commentary.

If you don't think wearing the mask quite literally changes people, as the Encyclopedia Britannica states in the quote above, think about all of the masked "Karens" you've seen online videos of, wildly chasing people who aren't wearing masks down the road, publicly berating them for not wearing masks, and screaming at them that there's "blood on their hands" for not masking up like good little boys and girls always should.

Here's one, for example, in which the "Karens" are all big, burly, mask-wearing males, quite literally shoving an elderly gentleman out of a store for not wearing a mask:

Through the wearing of the mask, the occult ritualists have created an army of "Karens" – programmed automatons who take the ritual so seriously that they feel personally and physically threatened when you don't. And they don't mind telling you so. Often vigorously.

The Encyclopedia Britannica goes on to say about the masking ritual:

"Usually, however, the wearer skillfully becomes a 'partner' of the character he is impersonating, giving to the mask not only an important spark of vitality by the light flashing from his own eyes but also bringing it alive by his movements and poses."

In other words, in the end, the mask becomes part of the very identity of those who wear it. The occult transition becomes complete. The "new you" is born from the ritual.

The Encyclopedia Britannica further states:

"But often the wearer [of the mask] seems to become psychologically one with the character he is helping to create.

He seems to become an automaton, without his own will, which has become subservient to that of the personage of the mask."

You might want to think about those dozens of online videos showing fully-masked hospital nurses and hospital workers participating in elaborately choreographed Tik-Tok dance videos, while simultaneously thousands of hapless coronavirus victims are supposedly dying cruel deaths and being stacked up like cord wood in those very same hospitals.

Yes, a veritable masked dance of death, just like you see in the movies. And we all know who Mr. Death is, don't we?

Revelation 6:8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

What's more, by adding dance to the mask-wearing, the new slaves show their willingness to entertain their captors – to become little more than flesh play-sports to them — just as the Babylonian soldiers of old tried to force the Israelite captives to entertain them with music. As it's written:

Psalms 137:1 By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept, when we remembered Zion.

Psalms 137:2 We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof.

Psalms 137:3 For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song; and they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

Psalm 137:4 How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

As you can see, the Israelites of old refused to entertain their captors... refused to provide the requested mirth...asking amongst themselves, "How can we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?"

But unlike the time of the Babylon captivity, today's coup against God's People, and today's ongoing overthrow thereof, is, so far, being accomplished without conventional warfare.

So, the people, by-and-large, don't even realize the depth and severity of the attempted coup against them, because it's being accomplished almost solely through occult ritual deception. Which is why God's Word warns us that there will be times we can't even trust our own neighbors. As it's written:

Jeremiah 9:4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders.

Jeremiah 9:5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

Jeremiah 9:6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the Lord.

First, the powers-that-be deceive your neighbors into putting on the mask. Then your neighbors, thinking they're doing right, work to push you into doing the same, using peer pressure and "virtue signaling."

And if you refuse to be deceived, as they are, they'll slander you, turn against you, and work to supplant you.

Does this sound at all familiar to you?

Tell me again, how many cities and states now have highly-publicized “snitch lines” in which your neighbors can call up and report you for not wearing a mask? One U.S. city alone is said to have registered an astonishing 200,000 “tip-off” calls on their snitch line in a single week.

Yes, it’s just an updated version of what the book of Jeremiah tells us has happened before. Neighbor being turned against neighbor. In this case, over their failure to perform a prescribed ritual.

Like the old movie, Invasion of the Body Snatchers, your own neighbors end up as mind-controlled “pod people” who want nothing more than to drag you into the interconnected pod hive with themselves and all of the other victims of mind-control, happily betraying you (and your God-given freedom and position) in the process.

But the mask-wearing has another occult meaning, as well, which we’ve only lightly touched on. As the Coronacircus.com website states about the wearing of the masks:

“To better understand the symbolism of wearing the mask, try typing the word ‘censorship’ into Google Images and see what kind of illustration predominantly comes up. Here’s a sampling of what you’ll find:

That’s also why our figurehead leaders are ostensibly refusing to “mask up”: We are the one’s being gagged, not them.

These unconscious associations are extremely strong. Gags are a symbol of subservience and domination; they are deeply humiliating (and indeed they are popular in BDSM sexual bondage practices).

That is why people resist them so much; that is also why they are currently being made mandatory the world over. There is little doubt the unproductive barbarians behind this circus are enjoying themselves; they believe they are being subtle."

Ah, yes. Subtle like the serpent. Coronacircus.com continues by pointing out:

This also involves imposing their symbols on us. The esoteric interpretation of the mandatory gagging ties directly into the symbology of silence that is as old as occultism itself."

The symbology of silence is as old as occultism itself.

And here's one little thing in particular they'd love you to keep silent about:

Caption on box of standard face masks: "This product...will not provide any protection against COVID-19 (Coronavirus) or other viruses or contaminants"...

Yes, they even admit right on the box holding the face masks that they don't work for coronavirus.

So why would they force you to wear them under penalty of law? Because, in the grand scheme of things, wearing the mask has nothing to do with coronavirus. It has to do with initiating you into the new global order, and your new place within it.

Finally, as the occult website, Occult-World.com, states about the wearing of masks:

"... Ancient peoples understood well the power of the mask. Evidence of mask-wearing in prehistoric societies shows that masks may have been intended to transform the wearer magically.

“... The mask has been revered as a sacred object of power, a living thing that either has its own persona or represents the persona of another being. It enables the wearer magically to bring to life, and even become, the persona or spirit being represented by the mask.

“...The mask is a mediator between the ego and archetype, the mundane [i.e., worldly] and the supernatural, the sacred and the comic. It connects the present to the past, the individual to the entire collective of race, culture, country—and humanity.”

In other words, mask-wearing is symbolic of the silent acceptance of humanistic one-worldism under Satan. What might that eventually look like? How about this:

The precursor to Revelation 13:15? "And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed."

As you can now see, there's much, much more to the wearing of masks than what we've been led to believe. Mask-wearing is a very occultic phenomena, and always has been. Literally for thousands of years.

Indeed, it's a striking example of musterion – a secret religious initiation having to do with silence being imposed by shutting the mouth. Again, according to the Strong's Concordance, the word "Mystery" from the title "Mystery, Babylon," consists of "the idea of silence, imposed by initiation into religious rites."

Surely, by now, you understand that the mask-wearing has nothing to do with coronavirus, but instead, with the filthy pagan and occult beliefs of our present overlords who are seeking to make us their willing slaves through psychological programming, aka occult ritual programming.

Hey, don't be surprised. This is what occultists do. Like the story of the lady who rescues the hapless snake, only to have it bite her later. But when she asks the snake "Why did you bite me?" the snake simply replies, "Because I'm a snake, lady. That's what we do."

In making you wear the mask, the powers-that-be are initiating you into their new order. They're demoting you from your position as a sovereign representative on earth to the Most High God, to your new position as a dependent slave to their system, aka, their "Mystery, Babylon," which could very simply be translated: silent confusion.

Can the power of this occult ritual be stopped? Yes, it can. And quite easily, for any Christian. As a Christian, you can simply opt-out of the ritual. Stop participating. *Withdraw your consent!

I WILL NOT BE
MASKED, TRACKED, TESTED, CHIPPED OR
POISONED TO SUPPORT
THIS ORCHESTRATED
LIE!
THIS WILL NOT BE MY

I DO NOT CONSENT!

Ritual Daily Hand Washings

We've now discovered that the global mask-wearing phenomena is part of an occult initiation ritual designed to usher the initiate into a new paradigm – a new position in a new global order. The mask itself signals one's consent to the change, and symbolizes loss of one's previous sovereign position as a faithful Christian carrying forth God's Word.

So, what about the other rituals they've imposed upon us, such as the daily ritual washing of hands?

Perhaps you've dutifully washed your hands eight or 10 times a day now, for months on end, thinking it's a way to keep "the virus" from infecting you. And yes, there's indeed some truth to the idea of washing one's hands to help prevent the spread of an infectious microorganism.

But... in reality, for the purposes of occult ritual initiation, the powers-that-be have you symbolically washing your hands of your duties to Christ Himself.

To the occultists, this forced occult ritual washing of the hands reverses Pilate's public handwashing ritual, which, for the last 2,000 years, has put the onus for Christ's death on the hands of the ritualists themselves, and absolved Christ (and the Romans) of all guilt:

Matthew 27:24 — When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

Pilate performed a ritual washing of his hands in front of all of the people of Israel as a means of placing the responsibility for the Lord's death directly on the heads of those who made sure He would be crucified.

Now, the powers-that-be in this day-and-age – who are descendants of those very same earthly powers who slew Christ on that cross at Calvary — have you working each day, in occult symbolic ritual, to reverse the impact of Pilate's original ritual hand-washing, as well as his pronouncement of Christ's innocence.

"Wash your hands," the powers-that-be tell you every single day on the nightly news. "Spend at least 30 seconds on each finger of your hands, and on your palms and the back of your hands. Do this repeatedly throughout the day if you want to live."

So, your acceptance of the ritual mask-wearing alchemically begins creating the "new you" – the initiated servant moving from his old position into the new. And your ritual washing of hands has you symbolically (albeit unconsciously) washing away your old position – your old Master and his prescribed ways — in anticipation of your new master and his.

It's that simple. Hand washing is the occult ritualistic symbol of rejection.

When you fall for the hand-washing ritual, you're symbolically washing away your old life, under Christ, in willing acceptance of your new life under the new order of the enemy and his "many antichrists" who have been pulling off this coup from the start.

The "Social Distancing" Ritual

So if the masking ritual signal one's consent to change, and symbolizes loss of one's previous sovereign position as a faithful Christian carrying forth God's Word, and the hand-washing ritual symbolizes the washing away of the old Christian order so the new order can be ushered in, what does the "social distancing" ritual signify?

This one's almost too easy to spot: Right off the bat, the use of the magical number six – as in six feet apart — should set your Spidey senses on edge, meaning, of course, your God-given discernment.

After all, there's no more widely used occult number in the world than the number "six." As you know, the antichrist's very number is "six hundred, three score and six," or 6-6-6.

The powers-that-be assure us that if we'll all walk six feet apart, we won't catch coronavirus. Do you really need me to explain why that's a bunch of hogwash?

Are you not aware that there are already MILLIONS of viruses in every breath of air you take? No matter where you walk, those viruses are there – between 1.6 million to 40 million viruses in every cubic meter of air we pass through as we walk.

So, no matter how far apart from others you walk, those viruses are there. You can't escape them, except perhaps in a full-blown Hazmat suit with an air tank that you'd need to leave running 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

So, much like mask-wearing, social distancing is a lie. It cannot possibly work. Yet we're being forced to participate in it. But why would they do so? And if it can't really help against viruses, what's its occult purpose? Well, try this on for size:

Each of us are individual, but integral, parts of the many-membered body of Christ. We don't just walk with Christ. True Christians walk in Christ.

Colossians 2:6-7 Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

But symbolically speaking, the ritual of "social distancing" — at the magical "six feet" apart — is the part of the initiation ritual that SEPARATES YOU from Christ.

Rather than walking in Him, as His personal representative on this earth, you're now symbolically and ritualistically separated from Him. Like Kevin Bacon and his Six Degrees of Separation.

Six feet from the Father. Six feet from the Son. Six feet from the Holy Spirit. Yes, that's 6-6-6.

The occult ramifications are undeniable.

But that's not all: Each individual Christian must remain six feet away from all other Christians. Do you understand what the powers-that-be are doing, ritualistically and symbolically?

Let me explain it: As a member of the Body of Christ, you're supposed to be an integral part of the "whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth..." As it's written:

Ephesians 4:16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

The term “fitly joined together” in the above verse means “joined, joint-to-joint” or “close-jointed.” The word “compacted” in the above verse means “united.”

In other words, Christians are supposed to come together, sinew-to-sinew and joint-to-joint, tightly united in the Body of Christ. And through preaching His Word, we’re to help bring others into the tightly-knit body to help the body grow.

But the occult ritual initiation rule of six feet of separation symbolically neutralizes this command. (Remember, this is a form of occult magic. Symbols are everything in occult magic.)

It puts arbitrary man-made distance between those who are supposed to have no distance at all between them. It rips the metaphorical body of Christ apart at the seams, symbolically speaking. It separates the “joints and sinews” that are supposed to be so tightly knit together.

But as a well-studied and faithful Christian, you know there’s absolutely nothing on this earth that can separate you from the love of Christ (Romans 8:35-39). And that especially includes some stupid occult ritual.

Nevertheless, ritual occult magic is what the powers-that-be do. They glory in it. Their Kabbalah is full of it. It’s what they’ve done for thousands of years. In other words, it’s what they sincerely believe in. And... it’s what they want us to buy into without critical thought.

Centuries ago, they brought their occult ritual Kabalistic magic all of the way back from Babylon. Now they’ve opened the ancient books.

And they're unleashing the rituals in the final days of this flesh earth age.

And the worst part is this: It's actually working. People are falling for it because of the sheer depth and breadth of the deception. And all of this over a virus with a 98.5% survival rate! Talk about putting people into a global trance!

In the end, the ritual of forced "social distancing" is designed to symbolically negate or neutralize God's Word in a multitude of ways:

- By eliminating fellowship between believers...
- By stopping church services worldwide...
- By causing faithful church pastors to be cited or even arrested for holding church services...
- By causing faithful congregants to be cited or even arrested for attending church services...
- By symbolically tearing apart the mystical and metaphorical Body of Christ, which is supposed to be "fitly joined together and compacted."

In Amos 3:3, the prophet asks a very simple question:

Amos 3:3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

Well, two Christians can't "walk together" if the powers-that-be can force them to walk six feet apart. We're building a many-membered body, folks. A living temple of Christ, with each brick pressed up against the next like the sinews running through your physical body. As it's written:

1 Peter 2:5 Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

But you can't put together a many-membered body – a living temple of God on earth — if you can't press the bricks up close to each other in the building process. You know what happens when there are gaps in the seams between the bricks: It gives the “rats” an easy way to get into the temple.

The bottom line is that the “social distancing” ritual is symbolically designed to physically and spiritually limit the impact of Christianity on this earth, and put a halt to the growth of the many-membered Body of Christ in the final days of this flesh earth age. It's a very clever ritual.

But here's one thing the powers-that-be have overlooked: “What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder” (Matthew 19:6).

God has been putting together His many-membered body in Christ for some 2,000 years now. And we've all worked hard to help build it further.

So that's our command for these times: “What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.”

And we follow that command by exposing the occult rituals of the powers-that-be. We stop participating in the global rituals and their components. And we resume our work for the Lord. We walk together, in Christ, tightly knit. Never six feet apart, physically or spiritually.

And whatever you do, don't let the “Karens” of this world get your goat on “social distancing,” either.

It's not their business where, or how, you walk your walk in the Lord. But always know that these thoroughly addled, out-of-work hall monitors are out there, and they despise you for your choice of not consenting to the new order:

The Ritual of Lockdowns and “Social Isolation”

“Stay home. Stay safe. Save lives.”

That’s what we’re being told, anyway. Yet a recent study of NY area hospitals demonstrates that a whopping 66% of all coronavirus hospitalizations have been among people who wore masks, washed their hands, practiced six feet of separation, and stayed home.

In other words, the vast majority of the hospitalizations were among people who followed the rules, prompting the Daily Mail to ask in a headline news article, “Does lockdown even work?”

Draconian “lockdowns” for pandemic flus were rejected as ineffective and destructive, in a seminal 2006 paper, on infectious disease & socioeconomic grounds, by serious, experienced epidemiologists, led by D.A. Henderson, former Dean of Johns Hopkins School of Public Health — the man who eradicated smallpox. (See <https://www.thegatewaypundit.com/2020/05/study-led-d-henderson-man-eradicated-smallpox-finds-draconian-lockdowns-flu-pandemics-rejected-ineffective-even-destructive/>)

And if lockdowns don't work, then why on God's green earth are our global overlords making us “stay at home”? From an occult point-of-view, there's an answer:

Lockdowns are little more than social isolation rituals, performed for the purpose of “purifying” the initiate so he can enter the new order unimpeded by things of the past no longer considered, by the powers-that-be, to be beneficial to the initiate.

There are basically four stages to an isolation ritual:

Stage 1: Isolation for purification (you're cut off from the normal, and thrust into a “new normal” that's completely different than your past life)

Stage 2: Surrender to the “new normal.” This often involves being given a token gift (think “stimulus check”) leading the initiate believe he's being well-taken care of by his new overlords, so there's no need to rebel against the new order one is being initiated into.

Stage 3: Sacrifice. No gift can be given without something being taken. In this case, your dignity...your sovereign independence...your voice...your individual power on this earth as a representative of the Word of the Most High God – all of these things, and more, are being taken from you in exchange for the cold “comfort” of a new way in a new world.

Stage 4: Submission. Think: Mandatory vaccines. Social tracing. The willing acceptance of new rules for a new order.

Once again, the idea is that the “new person” being initiated into the “new order” needs to be psychologically, if not physically, purged of the old way, before gradually being initiated into the new way.

At the website AvoidtheMark.com, an article on initiation rituals states:

“The isolation stage of the ritual is for purification. In this stage, the initiate is separated from the mundane. Did you know that mundane literally means “of the world?”

The initiate is largely removed from the otherwise familiar persons, places and things that they’re used to, in order to be “cleared” of them.

An initiate is forced to become detached and insulated, purged and “purified.”

*An essential element of this separation from one’s typical environment is the suspension of the normal rules of living that one is used to; the normal way is no more.

Most of the initiate’s senses will become commanded and regulated at this time. In other words, the majority of what the initiate sees, hears, smells, touches and tastes, is deliberately controlled.

... With nowhere else to go except the places that we’re “allowed,” the insulated, isolated, initiated may be forced to confront his or her own reflection and inner shadows that have been ignored or buried somewhere deep beneath the average day-to-day.

...Just as they involve surrender, initiation rituals also involve sacrifice; both the tangible that can be held in the hand, and the intangible, such as behaviors, must be given up by requirement.

*After all, for something to be “given,” something must also be taken; a token of submission, an ounce of blood; a pound of clay to be remolded.

*Whether dramatically overt or deceitfully subtle, the ritual reinterprets reality; a new definition of reality is given. Training in the form of new behaviors and knowledge, including myths and codes are introduced.

Things necessary for new members to function properly in the new version of society they're being inducted into are all imbued during this time. Repetition is typical, as it's use helps hammer home the spell on the initiates.

Just think about it: What they're describing is the implementation of the "new normal."

But you have to lose the "old normal" first, in order to be initiated into the "new normal." Hence the lockdowns...loss of work...travel restrictions...business restrictions...food shortages...and much, much more.

In the end, the "new normal" becomes the norm, and the old ways are gradually forgotten. New mythologies are created for the new world, by our new masters.

And the "new you" – the transformed you – is birthed from the isolation.

In Summary

So, there you have it. The world today is undergoing a four-part occult ritual initiation and transformation ceremony – largely conducted through symbology, as virtually all occult rituals are – and designed to bring everyone, willingly and subserviently, into the new global order.

The global occult ritual of mask-wearing signals your consent to your new, subservient position, under your new masters, and the loss of your position as a vocal representative of, or mouthpiece for, the Word of God on this earth.

The global occult ritual of handwashing represents the washing away of the old order (i.e., the Christian Order you once belonged to), so a new order can be ushered in and firmly established.

The global occult ritual of six feet of “social distancing” symbolizes the breaking apart of the Body of Christ on earth, so it no longer functions as a stable and cohesive unit.

The global occult ritual of lockdowns symbolize isolation from everything normal so you can be “purified” from your old ways...surrender your former status to the new order...sacrifice your very self to the new order...and finally, willingly submit to the new order through obedience to it. And this will go on until the “new you” evolves like a Phoenix from the drama and trauma, straight into the waiting arms of Satan himself, ultimately. (Do you see now why our heavenly Father reduced the tribulation from seven years to five months, “for the elect’s sake”?)

All told, it’s an astonishing sight to behold.

The whole thing is being accomplished through a massive, global, theater-like stage play replete with occult rituals that virtually everyone, with the exception of God’s elect, are willingly participating in, ignorant of their true meaning and ultimate purpose.

The Mark of the Beast

All told, these ongoing occult initiation rituals – the wearing of masks...the washing of hands...the six feet of separation...the lockdowns — are the direct precursor, if you will, to accepting the Mark of the Beast.

Now, the Bible tells us that the Mark of the Beast is placed in the forehead and on the right hand (Revelation 13:16-17) of those who willingly take it.

I've often asked myself how so many people – the entire world, actually, with the exception of God's elect — could possibly take the Mark of the Beast, willingly, since it's quite literally the most well-known occultic “mark” the world has ever known.

After all, far more people know about the Mark of the Beast, than, say, other “marks” such as the Scarlet Letter (a letter “A” branded in red on the flesh of an adulteress), or the Yellow Star the Jews were forced to wear on their clothing in Nazi Germany.

But what if the infamous Mark of the Beast is not a visible mark, at all? Not a vaccine. Not a tattoo. Not a “quantum dot.” Not a scarred brand on seared human flesh. But instead, an invisible, spiritual mark?

Indeed, what if the Mark of the Beast is so seemingly innocuous in nature, one can quite easily be deceived into taking it, through occult ritual magick initiation and transformation, like we're seeing take place today on a global basis?

The “mark” in the forehead simply means one mentally buys into the new system they're being initiated into. And the “mark” in the right hand simply means one begins working for the new system...becoming a full and willing participant in it.

In other words, what if the Mark of the Beast on the right hand and in the forehead simply means the people buy into the new system, hand-and-mind?

Symbolically speaking, first the initiate willingly believes the deceptive story being promulgated by the powers-that-be (i.e., keep in mind that belief is a function of the mind/forehead), and then the initiate willingly and earnestly participates in the occult initiation and programming (i.e., begins wearing masks...washing hands...social distancing...locking down).

Voila! You now belong to the powers-that-be, hand-and-mind. They've captured you with a lie, and you don't even realize it. In this case, it's the coronavirus lie.

They've got you dancing to their tune. And that's precisely what the Mark of the Beast accomplishes, when Satan gets here: Mental and emotional acceptance of the Satanic "Mystery, Babylon" system by the people of the world. And willingness – even eagerness – to work within that Satanic system, to its benefit. That's your "mark." As it's written:

Revelation 13:8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

The only difference at this point is that Satan is not yet physically here to deceive people with his miracles into joining his global beast system and installing him as its god.

But his henchmen are here, and they're softening up the world with these global occult ritual initiations, in preparation for the time when their father the devil finally arrives in his splendid role as the false messiah, and offers the "mark" in much the same way its precursor is being offered to us today.

That's why I say this occult global ritual initiation/transformation is nothing less than a sneak peak at the Mark of the Beast — a global dress rehearsal for it, if you will.

The beast commanded the ritual initiation of the people of this earth, and literally billions of people worldwide fell into stride and unwittingly (yet quite willingly) participated, hand-and-mind, in their ritual.

Think about it. Virtually the entire world – with the exception of God's elect — rallied around a singular global banner that was emblazoned everywhere. And that banner read:

Folks, when Satan finally arrives in his role as the false messiah, that's exactly what the Mark of the Beast is going to be like: The whole world coming together as one, and then going to work for the system, under its new leader.

The story you'll be asked to believe – the lie they'll be promulgating — is this: "Jesus is here." But as the Scripture warns:

Mark 13:21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

Mark 13:22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

Mark 13:23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

If, at that time, you believe the blatant lie that Christ is here, when the Scripture tells you the exact opposite, you've taken (rather, you've been taken-in by) the first part of the Mark of the Beast, i.e., the mark in your forehead, which represents your belief.

You've believed the lie with your mind, just as people today have been completely taken in by the coronavirus lie – the lie that a virus with a 98.5% survival rate constitutes a “global pandemic” through which we must give up all of our liberties and freedoms.

As it's written of that soon-coming time when Satan is on this earth in his role as the false messiah:

2 Thessalonians 2:11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

2 Thessalonians 2:12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Then, when you begin working fervently for the new system, implementing the changes in your life that will be required by its global leader in his role as the god of this earth, you've taken the second part of the Mark, i.e., the mark in your right hand, which, Biblically-speaking, is your hand of power and the hand through which you strike an agreement with others.

You've embraced the new system with a hand-clasp, just as literally billions of folks around the globe, today, are enthusiastically (yet unwittingly) embracing the ritual occult mask-wearing, hand-washing, six feet of separation, and lockdowns imposed on them by their new global masters.

In short, it's my belief that what we're seeing today is a global dry run for when Satan finally gets here, and deceives the world into accepting the true Mark of the Beast.

In Conclusion

The short, 12-minute video below, titled "The Characteristics of an Initiation Ritual," synthesizes some of the most pertinent points I've tried to explain in this commentary. It's well worth the listen:

The bottom line is this: You can choose to become another brick in the wall of this fledgling global order they're trying so desperately to usher in (and which, I believe, will ultimately fail, based on Daniel 11:14).

Or, you can choose to remain a living stone in the Temple of the Most High God (I Peter 2:5), and stand firm in your purpose as a vessel through which His Word is transmitted to others. That is your eternal destiny, IF you're not talked out of it through deception.

Choose very wisely.

It is interesting how you pointed out that Babylon means confusion. Mystery Babylon then translates into Mystery Confusion....a confusion that arises mysteriously. The mysterious origin would have to be the agents of the devil, as you pointed out, using these mysterious rituals to set up the new world order and confuse (brainwash) the world.

Ok, I actually see all this as an inversion or Yahushua's sacrifice. For example, the mask is a bridal veil, the bride of Ha Satan, the hand washing is the lavarse as the washing in the temple court or like a "mikveh" as if trying to take things back to the "law".... the mask wearing is also like "sharia law" or what will become the Noahide laws.

It is very possible that covid stands for... "Certificate Of Vaccination ID" that would explain not being able to travel or enter a business to buy or sell without one. Today some places you are not allowed entry to buy or sell without a mask. If they can get Trump out of the way they may pass a law making a "certificate of vaccination ID" mandatory just as some states have done for our pets and children in order to allow them to travel or be in public schools.

"Not," you're welcome to mask up, all you want, and keep the darned thing on as long as you want. I have no problem with it if it makes you feel better. But let's take a quick look at some of your statements:

"Ya'll are crazy."

That's a false accusation against a fellow Christian.

"God created science."

God also warned us to beware of, and avoid, "science falsely so-called" that creates "oppositions" to God's Word (I Tim. 6:20). In other words, some science (in fact, most) is anti-God. Evolution, for example, is one of the mainstays of this “science” you claim is God-made. But, of course, evolution is anathema to God’s Word. Or what about the “science” that says a baby in the womb is “just a blob of tissue” and not a human being? The science of psychiatry itself has no basis in fact, and was designed largely by those wanting to overthrow Christianity. Much of science today, if not the vast majority of it, is designed to negate God’s Word. So God may have created it, but He also warned it would be misused. And it certainly is. Particularly in the case of COVID.

“If there’s a 1% chance that you could prevent a death of God’s children you should do it.”

A 1% chance? Really? Who says that? Where is it in the Bible? That’s like saying if there was even a 1% chance that Christ’s crucifixion would ultimately lead to the deaths of some of His followers, He should have avoided the crucifixion altogether. Virtually all of His disciples were eventually killed for their faith. Peter hung upside down on a cross. James thrown from the tower of the temple in Jerusalem. Etc. Weren’t their flesh lives valuable? Do you see where your reasoning is all coming from flesh emotion, and not the Spirit, at all? I could say if there’s a 1% chance that you, not driving to work each day, could prevent a death of one of God’s children” then you should give up your driver’s license and stay home.

One cannot go through life worrying about whether there's a "1% chance" that something you do might result in someone's death. Heck, there's a 1% chance that eating ice cream every day could give you diabetes and ultimately kill you. But you don't stop eating ice cream over it. There's a 1% chance you could be electrocuted from using an electrical outlet that's been miswired. So don't use your electrical outlets. You could go on and on and on with all of these virtue-signalling "1%" rules, but in the end, it's all nonsense.

"This article is anti-Christian, and pins Americans against Americans."

I suppose you mean "pits" Americans against Americans, rather than "pins." But no, the article is not antichristian. It's completely pro-Christian. Just trying to let the sheep know the wolves have entered among the flock. That's all. Completely Biblical. And as for pitting Americans against Americans, I'd say BLM, Antifa, the broadcast news media, and our liberal politicians are doing a pretty good job of that. No, I'm trying to get Christians to unify around the truth, rather than get sucked into the deception being pulled on them.

"Years from now you will look back and realize that you were a fool if you believe this crap."

Sorry, but I believe it more now, than the day I wrote it. No. I think it's you who, "years from now" will look back and realize you were a fool to believe the way you do.

The Bible says that unless the Lord comes quickly even the elect would be deceived. If doubt should ever arise then the simplest way to gain footing would be to return to the simple gospel message. Revelation clearly says who the elect are in those days , "they that keep his commandments and have the testimony of Jesus Christ." His death assured all who believe can do "all things" through him. All things begin and end with the holy law, the 10 commandments. In order to keep them wholly requires love, born only by the in dwelling Holy Spirit, making the believer free indeed"

I agree we need to be alert and wise to recognize the works of 'The Empire', and a lot of people are realizing that The Economy has been their god, and it's now become very clear that they have elected in negligent sinful men like Trump to lead us; but your enthusiasm to spot signs of the occult is stretched for example by using the 6 foot distance. First, most countries are saying 2 metres, which is 6.561686 feet, although you will no doubt notice there are three 6's in that number. Secondly, some countries are saying 5 feet distance. But most troubling in your analysis is the effect of causing fear to the Christian who should know they will not be initiated into the occult just because they take some precautions from catching a cold, or the 'flu, or the coronavirus. Your suggestion that a Christian will be 6 feet apart from God, 6 feet apart from Jesus, 6 feet apart from the Holy Spirit (.... aha...666!!) is sinful and you should publicly repent and apologise to your readers.

Unless of course you simply delight in putting fake news fear into Christians, in which case we know where you are coming from.

Reply.

Steve Barwick on May 30, 2020 at 6:08 pm

Once again, you've missed the point, Al. All occultism and occult ritual — including the Masonic, Illuminati, etc. — is based on symbolism. Look it up before you embarrass yourself by commenting publicly on that which you know nothing about, or that which your “feelings” (rather than knowledge) are the only thing you have to go on.

Wearing a mask, social distancing and being locked down will not “initiate” anyone into the occult. And I never said it would. That's merely what YOU chose to read into my commentary. Hell, TV is one big occult ritual, too. But watching TV doesn't make you an occultist (though, over time, it can neutralize your wisdom in the Lord due to the ritualistic repetition of false wisdom).

What I said was this: In doing those three things (mask-wearing, social distancing, lockdowns), one is inadvertently, or unwittingly, participating in an occult ritual. And I explained the symbolism being used by the occultists. I did not do so in order to “delight in putting fake news fear into Christians.” I did so to uplift strong Christians in wisdom and knowledge of how the enemy works. I did so to help demonstrate to fellow Christians that when things don't make common sense (such as locking down the entire globe over a virus that has a 98.9% survival rate, and making people wear facemasks in public, and travel 6 feet apart), there's probably something much more sinister going on.

It's funny. You find what I wrote to be sinister. And I find the actions of the powers-that-be to be sinister. You apparently relate more to them, and what they're doing. That's okay. Put your mask on. Walk 6 feet apart from everyone. Hunker down in your home instead of believing God's command to "Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." We will all be judged by our actions.

Revelation 12:7-9 has not yet taken place. Satan is here, yes, but in spirit only (i.e., the “mystery of iniquity doth already work” — 2Thess. 2:7). In other words, just as Father is not on this earth right now, His Holy Spirit is nevertheless everywhere. Satan’s spirit, too, is on this earth, and works it’s iniquity. When Satan and his angels are finally kicked out of heaven, physically, you’ll certainly know it. You’ll be able to see them with your eyes, and point to them with your finger. You can’t now, because Satan is here in spirit only, influencing people to do his work.

Reply.

Steve Barwick on June 9, 2020 at 4:35 pm

Karen, using the term "Karen" to denote a neighborhood busy-body is not of my invention. It's a terminology people have used for years. Sort of the same way people might say something like "God created Adam and Eve, not Adam and Steve." That saying doesn't even remotely imply that every "Steve" (like myself, for example) is homosexual. But if I were overly-sensitive about it, I could interpret it that way. But I recognize it as just a societal saying used within Christianity itself to denote the fact that God doesn't like homosexuality as it corrupts the natural order.

If you go to YouTube and type into their search function the words "karen freakouts face masks" you'll find people who refused to wear a mask, and berated others for wearing masks, being labeled as "Karens." And at the same time, you'll see videos of people wearing masks and berating others for not wearing masks, being labeled as "Karens."

Wikipedia says, "Since the late 2010s, the name 'Karen' had been used in a similar vein as 'Becky', to refer to an entitled, reactionary busybody middle-aged white woman making formal complaints about trivial activities and wielding her white privilege."

According to Nameberry.com, “Recently, the name Karen has been turned into a meme, representing a hostile white woman—one who usually wants to speak with the manager.”

So, apparently, whether or not one is labeled by society as a “Karen,” depends almost solely upon whether one is being a busy-body towards others, i.e., trying to push one’s own will on others, “for their own good,” or complain about trivial matters to authorities. So, in the societal slang, a “Karen” is sort of like a hall monitor at school who barks at people walking down the hallways to tuck in their shirts, or pull up their socks, or button the top buttons on a blouse, or other trivial matters.

You probably already know that the name Karen is derived from Katherine, and means pure, purity, or unsullied, and implies nobility. It’s from one of my favorite Biblical Greek words, katharos, which has the same meaning. As it’s written:

Titus 1:15: To the pure (katharos/karen), all things are pure (katharos/karen), but to those who are corrupted and do not believe, nothing is pure (katharos/karen). In fact, both their minds and consciences are corrupted.

So, you have a fabulous name. Don’t let society’s little memes and symbologies get to you.

Regards in Christ,
Steve

Andrew, see:

Mar 13:19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

Mar 13:20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

Also, see:

Rev 9:3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

Rev 9:4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

Rev 9:5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

And finally:

Rev 9:10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

Rev 9:11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

I hope that helps. Jesus Himself shortened the days, for the elect's sake.

You're mistaken in your comment about the Mark Of The Beast...Rev 13:16 KJV. And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:...You state that it will be on their right hand, but you were correct when you said in their foreheads. Which makes me think that it could be a microchip.

Reply.

Steve Barwick on June 28, 2020 at 12:31 am

Or, perhaps you're mistaken, not knowing a Biblical figure of speech from an actual description of a physical object.

Throughout the Bible, the hand (and sometimes arm) are put for work, action, getting things done. And the head is put for what one believes.

Example: Christ is referred to as the "right hand" of God. You can't take that literally. He's not a hand on the end of God's arm. It's a figure of speech meaning He gets the work done, for God.

And when the Scripture says that one should be nice to one's enemies because this will "heap burning coals on his head," it doesn't literally mean being nice literally and physically pours burning coals on someone's head. It means it causes their thinking (particularly their hatred toward you) to become disrupted. Do you understand that? Figures of speech. The Bible is chock full of them.

Likewise, the "mark of the beast" is a spiritual mark, not a physical mark (like a tattoo) or a physical object (like a microchip). And taking the mark in the forehead and hand simply means you've mentally accepted the beast system and have gone to work for it. (You mentally accept things in your head, right? And you work with your hands. In other words, you accept the beast system, hand and mind. That's it. It's really that simple.

Look, I'm not going to take their damned vaccine, or microchip, or anything else like it. But it's not because I think that's the mark of the beast. It's because I don't trust them as far as I can throw them. And Father's Word, by the way, says not to mark your flesh. So, even tattoos are wrong, Biblically. Much less microchips and all of that other stuff.

Nevertheless, when Satan gets here in his role of the antichrist, and starts working miracles, and healing people, and working all kinds of supernatural miracles, millions will flock to him, thinking he's "Jesus," and will bow to him and buy right into his system. And THAT'S the actual mark of the beast that can land one in the lake of fire.

Reply.

DaleInOklahoma on July 6, 2020 at 3:42 pm

I plan to stay safe no matter what the "mark" turns out to be...but what makes you 100% sure that this is a figure of speech? Seems like the smart thing to do would be to watch out for all of these things that are coming at us. I'd hate to be the one that told people that getting a digital ID chip into their hands so that they can "exist" in the world is somehow NOT the mark. Sometimes we want to be right so bad that we ignore the stumbling blocks we are unknowingly tossing out to others. Keep up the good work...but perhaps be a little nicer with those who dare to ask questions or perhaps disagree with something. Leave that nonsense to the deluded ones who want the heads of anyone who disagrees with them.

Reply.

Steve Barwick on July 6, 2020 at 4:53 pm

I'm 100% sure, because I know my heavenly Father and His Word.

He is a "heart knower" as the Scripture tells us. He knows what's in our heart. The powers-that-be can hold you down and bar code tattoo you from head-to-toe, or microchip you, or whatever, but you're not judged by that. You're judged by your love for Him, and your willingness to stick to His Word and stand up for it. His Word says the first supernatural being who sets foot on this earth performing miracles and claiming to be "God" is, in reality, the antichrist (II Thess. 2:1-4).

It is the acceptance of antichrist and his beast system (which will be portrayed as a utopia, to us) that constitutes the mark of the beast. If one would accept in his heart the false system, and the false Christ, they have taken that mark. It's really that easy.

That's not to say I have any intention of taking a microchip or a bar code tattoo, or whatever else they might have to offer. I just won't do it. But not because I think it's the mark. Instead, because I'm a Sovereign Citizen under God and His Christ, and I don't play their game.

Dale I absolutely agree with what you've said here, on all counts. Thank you.

Scripture also says no one will be able to transact any business without the mark. That sounds far more than a mental agreement.

Revelation 13:16 – “And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads” (KJV)

Revelation 13:17 – “And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.” (KJV)

As a computer programmer/analyst for over 40 yrs, several of those yrs in biomedical informatics including medical device implants using magnetics, etc., for the topmost rated research hospitals and private companies in the world... my mind says it's likely to be an actual physical mark that will be subdermal.. like a tattoo under the skin which can/will be scanned for all pertinent info.

It will likely contain the digital “signature” of the beast, plus all other necessary info for the transaction to occur. It may or may not be visible but i suspect it will be visible, as the decieved ones like to show themselves to be enlightened and obedient... a member of the club, so to speak. They seek comfort in numbers as evidence of their rightness. So a scan will show instantly if the person can transact. The retailer, for example, will not have choice either. It's just like a credit card. If your card is no good, there can be no transaction. But THIS "card" can only be had by giving total allegiance to the beast. And... based on my medical/digital experience – it is possible the beast's "signature" will include a heretofore unused alteration, or attachment to, ones very DNA.

Share This

So i do not completely refute Steve's view, but i believe it will include a physical mark. In fact, that is likely the very reason the world's complete chg from "tattoos are for drunken sailors" to "tattoos are cool and hip". People have moved to actually wanting and desiring a tattoo to show the world they're smart and enlightened and hip.

Reply.

Steve Barwick on July 7, 2020 at 7:40 pm

Whether there's a physical "mark" or not, God is concerned with

Share This

what's in your heart/mind, not on (or under) your skin.

(And yes, I'm familiar with the OT teachings on markings and cuttings.)

If you mentally accept the antichrist as your "God," and begin working for his beast system, then you've taken the mark of the beast. There doesn't have to be a bar code tattoo, or a microchip, or anything else on your body. Do you see what I mean? You can "take the mark" without a single tattoo, microchip or anything else.

Those technological items you mention might indeed be offered. And those things should, indeed, be turned down by any thinking Christian. But my point is that they could hold you down and FORCE all of those things on you, and God would not count that as you accepting the Mark of the Beast if, in your heart, mind and soul, you've not accepted the antichrist as your "God" and have not willingly jumped in and started working for his beast system.

Again, it's not what's on, or under, the skin. It's what's in the heart and mind.

Red John on July 7, 2020 at 5:31 pm

There will be a physical mark as well – the microchip is very much part of the elites' plan.

The author of the article will likely get upset at this response – he means well and he isn't wrong about most things in it – but there will be a physical mark and you will know it as a follower of Christ, when you see it.

The mark in the forehead is simply the linking of the brain to AI which is also a technology almost ready to roll out. The mark in the hand will be a microchip through which you'll transact. That technology is also ready to roll out – ID2020 and the Technical Certification Mark by Gates, GAVI and Accenture among others.

Reply.

Steve Barwick on July 7, 2020 at 7:12 pm

Yes, I'm very familiar with the Gates AI technology. Plus the DARPA gel with it's nanobots, that will likely be in the vaccines. And some other nifty things they have coming down the pike to try to force on us.

And I'm not in the least bit upset with your response. As I've

Share This

mentioned repeatedly, I'm not taking any microchip, laser tattoo bar code, vaccine, or anything else they try to throw at us.

Nevertheless, I don't believe these things constitute the mark of the beast, in, and of themselves. In other words, the powers-that-be can hold you down, and by force, microchip you from head to foot, and God won't count it against you, unless you actually WELCOMED it when it was offered. He's a heart-knower. In other words, our Father knows where our hearts and minds are. He knows the content of our love for Him and His Word. It's willingly accepting the antichrist as "God," and willingly joining the antichrist beast system as if it were the "Kingdom of God on earth" that constitutes the mark of the beast. The rest of it is just "jewelry," so to speak.

Regardless of what you might believe, we're probably closer to being on the same page, than not. Love God. Love His Word. Tell the enemy to stuff it.

Satan, invested in pagan worship since the Chaldean priests of Babylon, always wants to put something IN people's bodies – tattoos, micro-chips, poison-pills (inserted under the skin and attended by a personal demon who threatens to release the poison if the coven initiate ever tells the groups secrets) etc as a form of control by fear. All of these insertions are dangerous and can generally be physically rejected by the body. RFID chips are causing lesions. I have thought that with the return of TRANSHUMANISM, the attempt to become immortal by genetic or medical innovation, and/or to augment one's body with genetic or mechanical upgrades might signify that the anti-christ might offer his own genetically or nanotech upgraded blood to give people "eternal life". There was a blood rain in Mumbai, India, and samples of the blood cells were gathered from the ocean, from dirty puddles, from everywhere. The cells were not breaking down because they had been genetically altered to be 10-12x's thicker. At about the same time, a blood snowfall happened in mountains in Mexico. The "blood cells" were perfect nanotech spheres, with simple mechanisms to carry oxygen. Makes you wonder about the part of Revelation where people cried out to the rocks to kill them but they couldn't die for several months!

Share This

God created the entire plant and animal kingdom in perfection, and he stresses that he made them after their own kind. Mixing species was WRONG. But we are doing the same thing Genesis hints at in chapter 6, from cloning to the creation of chimera beasts. Even the U.S. military started a program in the 1950's to create a supersoldier that had heightened senses, by adding/mixing wolf DNA with human and injecting it into soldiers. This is the reality of the old Grimm's Tales. They are true. We just didn't have the details. And now we do. Jesus will return soon, because we have destroyed his perfection. The ecosystem cannot survive the mess satan has led people to make of their home, and their very bodies.

When this coronavirus started, I was asked to make masks for friends and family, which I did. BUT the Holy Spirit told me immediately not to wear a mask, and that social distancing was damaging to the spirit, soul, and body of Christ. O cannot convince anyone else though, that these practices not only are not protecting them from a virus or anything else, but actually damaging to them both physically and spiritually.

Thank you for bringing out the handwashing ritual. Speaking to the mandatory lockdowns. While I already knew it was wrong, as that is like being a prisoner in solitary. I agree with you, but would like to also make the connection that Satan is using that to imitate what we are supposed to do, to become a “living sacrifice”...a “new creature”.

Very good article.

The mark of the beast is in fact a spiritual mark “accepted into the forehead”. All freemasons, witches, satanists, all luciferians accept satan’s mark. They make up the head of the 666 beast possessed by satan. Accepting satan’s mark allows possession by satan and is blasphemy against God

Share This

AND the Holy Spirit. They have all fallen for satan's biggest lie – that earth is hell and they'll just reincarnate and rule here with their master satan forever. They accept satan's mark to get what they want: typically money, power, fame, sex. The biggest problem they have is that earth isn't hell and their final judgment is almost upon them. To cast satan into hell means the same for the 666 beast – possessed by satan. They believe hell is just an idea meant to scare and keep people in line.

Wouldn't get too bent out of shape, satan and the demons are now trapped; caught in their own net by their own black magick. Like wild, rabid animals stuck in a trap... screaming out and already gnashing their teeth. Very entertaining really.

Yep, Masonic initiation rites involve coming into a room blindfolded, being made to kneel, and swearing an oath to you death by throat-cutting if you tell what happens when the doors to the room are closed. Plenty of vids on that on youtube. I was a teenager in the Rainbow Girls, and was horrified to realize that the oath at the alter, with your hand on the Bible, was something I had done, and had to repent of. I won't keep their silence. They are a social club that worships Satan, though the lower ranks have no idea. If they are a 33rd Degree Mason or higher, the KNOW whom they worship.

Steve,

Consider this from the New England Journal of Medicine:

It is also clear that masks serve symbolic roles. Masks are not only tools, they are also talismans that may help increase health care workers' perceived sense of safety, well-being, and trust in their hospitals. Although such reactions may not be strictly logical, we are all subject to fear and anxiety, especially during times of crisis.

<https://www.nejm.org/doi/full/10.1056/NEJMp2006372?query=TOC>

TALISMAN – why was this word chosen, wouldn't "Security Blanket" have been a better choice?

Definition: Talisman

a stone, ring, or other object, engraved with figures or characters supposed to possess occult powers and worn as an amulet or charm.

God's Spirit has convicted my spirit that this is indeed an occult ritual playing out.

Add to this that masks do NOTHING to stop the spread of a virus but do MUCH HARM to the wearer – obvious submission attempt using fear – actually pretty evil.

Your article is further confirmation.

We need to do spiritual warfare – pray Church – PRAY.

The Lord Bless you,

Linda K.

You are correct, Roseberrywallah. The mark is in the forehead OR in the hand (Rev. 14:9). If you mentally buy into Satan's lies when he arrives to this earth in his role as the false Christ, you've taken the mark in the forehead. And if you begin working for Satan and his system when he arrives, you've taken the mark in the hand.

In other words, we do not honor or worship Satan as our savior, nor do we join in with his beast system. If we do either one, we've taken the mark.

Precisely. They are despicable. And there's no medical reason whatsoever for the masks. Why people can't grasp that, I just don't know. When the Swine flu crisis came through, WHO and CDC told us masks would not help. When Zika virus hit, they said "Masks won't work." When Bird Flu hit, they said "Masks don't work." But now, suddenly, they claim masks work. Why do they want the whole world running around with diapers on their faces? Subservience. Nothing more.

OK, so you would have us do what? We cannot shop in any store without wearing a mask, or get coffee or buy clothes. This mandate is almost as draconian as mass vaccination at gun point, or the feared "chip" where you cannot buy or sell without the chip, thus cutting you out like cattle being taken to the slaughter house.

I am beginning to feel the tinges of being triggered, but I am not going to my safe place and suck my thumb. I want to start hanging criminal politicians from the highest yardarm. Whining about all this just won't stop the Socialist Demonrats from moving forward with their war against the American people.

It is time to "Lock & Load" my friends because we may have to start shooting to get our country back on the right track. Terrorist only understand death, so lets give them something to worry about.

I'm with you, on that, Forearmed. But not too many other Christians have the intestinal fortitude for it. Nevertheless, I'm buying up all of the .223 I can find. And if need be, I'll use it.

As for the masks, I haven't had a single problem, yet. I just go to the store, and when they try to stop me from entering because of a mask requirement, I tell them I have a serious medical condition that makes wearing a mask unhealthy for me. By federal law, they cannot prevent you from entering, as they would be discriminating against a disabled person. The first-time fine for doing so, under the Americans with Disabilities Act, is $96,000. So they're not too keen on violating that law. So far, every store, restaurant and hair cut place and even the local dentist have allowed me in with no mask when I've simply stated, "I have a medical condition that precludes me from wearing a mask."

Hi Steve, what you've shared here has given me a lot to think about – and some of it I have heard God whisper to me as well.

One point, however, that may be far more hazardous than coronavirus, just as damaging as ritual occult initiatory practices, and apparently more subtle..

Many of us don't have medical conditions that would preclude us from wearing a mask. I am sure you are not suggesting that the readers here should lie, or be in alliance with falsehood – just so they can buy goods and services.

Otherwise we would have fallen into a clever variant of the same snare that you have worked so hard to help others avoid.. the mark of the beast is a symbol of alliance with what is false, a falsehood, a lie that one tolerates or justifies, because there is some apparent good or benefit offered in return – a mess of pottage for our birthright.

“It also forced all people, great and small, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hands or on their foreheads, so that they could not buy or sell unless they had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of its name.”

Revelation 13:16-17

It would be good for us to simply say that it is against our spiritual belief to don a mask as there are laws protecting these freedoms as well.

Reply.

Steve Barwick on July 10, 2020 at 12:46 am

There are indeed laws protecting our religious freedoms, as you pointed out. But as you've likely seen, if you've been watching the news, those laws are being widely and blatantly ignored. Churches and church leaders are being attacked, and in some cases, Pastors arrested, for failing to obey masking, social distancing, lockdowns, etc. So we can't count on religious freedom laws. They're being disobeyed by just about every government official at this point.

Share This

Yet, the government has been honoring their laws against discrimination, including discrimination against those with medical conditions. So, is it wrong for a Christian believer, when trying to get into a store to buy food for the kids, to say, "I have a medical condition that precludes me from wearing a mask"? Is that really a case of "aligning oneself with falsehood"? Or is it a necessary but very temporary covert activity to preserve one's rights and be able to shop without joining in with the larger deception that goes against our heavenly Father?

The Bible is full of what I like to call "covert activity" by God's servants. So let's take a look at some:

Was it wrong for King David to fake having a serious mental disorder when he needed to escape King Achish's wrath (I Samuel 21:12-15)? God didn't punish him for it, nor even require him to repent of the ruse. The ruse was necessary to keep him alive, i.e., to keep him from having his head chopped off by a foreign king. Yet, apparently, you'd prefer to charge him with "alliance with falsehood."

Was it wrong for King David to lie and tell the Ahimelech the Priest that he was on a “urgent secret mission” for the king, and trick the priest into giving him the Holy Bread from the temple to eat, when in reality he was running from the king and his troops, and was breaking God’s law in order to obtain the Holy Bread? God didn’t punish David for it, nor even require him to repent of the ruse. In fact, God would later call David “A man after my own heart” (Acts 13:22). And Jesus held up David’s actions as laudable in Matthew 12:2-8, even to the point of saying that David’s breaking of God’s law was justified by “one greater than the temple,” meaning Himself. (In other words, Christ, David’s descendant, would have never been born if David hadn’t saved himself with the lies he told Ahimelech.)

Was it wrong for Jacob to lie to his own father, Isaac, in order to obtain the inheritance he’d rightly purchased from Esau but had never been given? Jacob, too, was never chastised by the Lord for this deceptive lie. Instead, he was blessed in accordance with God’s promises to Abraham.

Was it wrong for Joshua and Moses to send out spies to spy out the land of Canaan? Isn’t spying a form of deception, fraud and lie?

Was it wrong for Abraham to tell foreigners that his wife, Sarah, was actually his sister? He did so in order to avoid being killed by people wanting to take his wife from him. He not only did this once, but twice. God never required repentance out of him for it, but DID require repentance from the foreign king who tried to steal Abraham's wife from him.

Look, I could go through the entire Bible and point out case after case in which God's servants had to participate in covert activity in order to either stay alive, or accomplish their mission for the Lord.

We, like they, are in a very serious situation today. It's now reached the point of both spiritual and secular warfare. And sometimes, in serious situations, you have to do things you wouldn't normally do in order to stay alive, or not violate your conscience or commit an even worse act — i.e., one that angers the Father, such as joining in hand-and-mind with those trying to take over our country, destroy Christianity, and rule ruthlessly over God's People.

I know it's not what you want to hear. But at least meditate on it. I have no problem at all with walking into a store and telling the mask-enforcer at the door that I have a medical condition that precludes me from mask-wearing. We all need fresh, pure air to breathe. It's how God made us. So that is the "medical condition" we live with. The powers-that-be, on the other hand, want you breathing the toxic carbon dioxide being expelled from your lungs and trapped in those masks with each exhale you make, because they know it causes low blood oxygen levels, diminishes thinking and reason, promotes muscle weakness, and actually makes you more susceptible, not less, to the virus. And on top of that, it's a sign of subservience to those who oppose you and the God you love.

So no. Regarding masks, I'll say what I have to say. I need to breathe freely in order to live. That's my medical condition. So I tell them I have a medical condition that exempts me from wearing the mask. And nine times out of ten, they let me pass.

Only once in the last six months haven't they allowed me to enter a building without a mask, and that was in a hospital. They said, "No matter what your excuse, you can't come in here without a mask." So, my wife handed me my "Guy Fowkes" paintball mask, and I put that on. Not kidding. They let me right in without any problem. I could hardly believe it, because it's not a medical mask by any stretch of the imagination.

More like a Halloween mask. And because it's a "Guy Fowkes" mask, it makes the statement, "Tread any further on me, and it's at your own risk."

Nevertheless, they let me in. They don't really care that the mask couldn't possibly stop a virus. They only care that you "Obey." And once I got past the mask-enforcers at the door, I took the mask back off.

Again, do what you have to do in order to get through this. A truly big, and I'm afraid, horrific, fight for the very heart and soul of this country is coming. Don't let them wear you down with their nonsensical rituals before the real battle finally starts.

The lying spoken against in the Bible is not what people commonly think. It's specifically bearing false witness against someone else. It's not telling a random person at the store that you have a medical condition that precludes you from wearing a mask. Not only that, but EVERYONE has this condition, because it's simply not healthy to wear one. Whether they recognize it or not.

One point that may be more hazardous than coronavirus:

Many of us don't have medical conditions that would preclude us from wearing a mask. I am hoping that you do actually have one – a medical condition, that in truth precludes you from wearing a mask.

Otherwise you are in alliance with a lie, and suggesting that the readers here should do the same – all so that you and others can buy goods and services? (Revelations 13:17)

If this was the case, then would you not have fallen into the same snare that you seem to have worked so hard to help others avoid..

You could be honest, instead, and tell them that wearing a mask violates your religious beliefs as there are laws protecting this right as well.

I'm pretty sure that no governor has the authority to make laws, has to go through legislature to become a law. They use verbal judo with their shall's, shall not's & must's making their "proclamations" appear legal. I live in Tx & keep a copy of Abbott's E.O.'s with the exemptions with me (my papers) I went shopping the other day & the cashier at a chain store said managers told them employees could not enforce the mask requirements. Why would a manager say this? Because it is not a law. At the grocery store an employee stood at the entrance holding a box of masks & offered them to me like dinner mints saying "masks are required" I gracefully danced by saying “no thank you, I’m exempt” I try not to get angry (but have) bc it seems anger/fear helps feed the beast & it is blatantly obvious this is a spiritual war. God bless!

The Bible say's "Out of the abundance of the Heart the Mouth speaketh" your replies to those who disagree with you are condescending, arrogant, prideful. Not what I would expect from a brother in Christ.

Your article is interesting but I find it quite a stretch, satanic ritual masks are wholly different than a Surgeon's mask or a N-95 mask. You have a shadow of satanic ritual at best. Is it a precursor to set people up for the real thing, maybe. We know the One World Gov. is coming, a One World leader, a one World currency. Please allow others the right to their opinion.

Reply.

I always allow others the right to their opinion. But what you're saying is that my opinion needs to be subservient to yours. And if I don't agree with you, you'll consider it "condescending, arrogant and prideful." Sorry, guy, but that's just not the way the world works. Nor is it the way God works. Check out Christ's words to the Pharisees and other religionists. He didn't mince words. He didn't worry about hurting "feelings." He called them murderers, thieves, liars, corrupters and degraders, and told them they were destined for hell. And if you were there, and had heard what He said to them, you'd probably be thinking, "What an arrogant, condescending and prideful man, standing there contradicting those who hold the Word of God." So, no, I won't apologize for not changing my opinion to suit yours. Wear your mask. Stand six feet apart from everyone. Wash your hands all day long. Hunker down in your home. No wonder the rest of the world thinks Christians are the weak men of the globe, now. And by the way, if you don't know anything about occultism (which, as a Christian, you should know how your Lord's enemies operate), then you shouldn't comment on what might be "quite a stretch" and what might not be. You're not qualified.

This BIOWEAPON is in the FLU SHOT AND THE SHINGLES SHOT. They've known all this time, and never told us. That's why they keep pushing the FLU SHOT. What does that tell you?

Never ever get any shots of any kind, nor alleged vaccinations of any kind, from this point on.

They gave the FLU SHOT to the residents of nursing homes, doctors, nurses, and everyone in between, who could be brainwashed or enticed in any way, to get the FLU SHOT.

Have Ye Not Read? Have Ye Not kept yourselves informed?
It wasn't your fault, but now that you know, it is your fault if you don't inform others not to take the FLU SHOT, OR THE SHINGLES SHOT. It is now your own fault if you take either shot.

It is not contagious. It must be INJECTED into your blood stream. And so it was.....in the FLU SHOT and the SHINGLES SHOT.

Hi Steve! I agree on a good bit of what you say, I have a few thoughts that I would like to share. When you speak of Mystery Babylon I interpret Mystery as A hidden knowledge that only the Initiated can know so if you want to fit in you have to follow the rules. I am like minded in the thought that Yeshua (Jesus) was not soft spoken on things that did not follow Scripture. Every one of his miracles directly broke the Pharasee's Takanot (laws that changed biblical law). The Pharasee's in order to keep the sheep inside of the hedge of the Torah, invented laws that were in direct rebellion to Yehovah's written instructions. Yeshua specifically said not to follow their man made rules, only follow Scripture. Yehovah (God) gave us specific instructions on how to dress, eat, and interact with Him and our neighbors. Yehovah mentions that there are certain ways to handle disease and illnesses, He said if we follow those instructions that we would be safe from the diseases that the Egyptians had. In the book of Daniel Yehovah said the people in the end times would follow after Anti-Christ's by 1. Changing the times and seasons(Pharasee's did this when they no longer followed the lunar determinations for what begins a month. 2. Constantine amalgamated pagan rituals with the worship of the one true God. Most people think that Yeshua(Jesus) did away with the Old Testament but he says that in the new heaven and earth that people who do not come up to worship him at Sukkot would be punished by not having any rain on their crops (it is a death sentence). The world does not want to follow Yehovah and are in open rebellion, they will readily take the mark of the beast because they do not want to take orders from him. I quit celebrating Easter and Christmas due to the paganism in them and I also quit eating pork. All of Yehovah's laws are for our good and welfare. Shalom!

Share This

In the name of Jesus Christ I rebuke you for misleading Christians.

Your conclusions are not Biblically based; no one wearing a mask for safety reasons (like firefighters) have rejected Christ. Also the Jews have been washing their hands per thousands of years per instructions from God in Leviticus.

If someone is actively in a Satan RITUAL doing these things then their intent is to follow safety. If not, they just have common sense when it comes to health.

Reply.

Grover, you completely missed the point. No one said anything about mask-wearing by professionals like firefighters. The article is about forcing the entire world to "mask up," when study after study shows that it doesn't do a thing to stop the virus from spreading. Even the Surgeon General of the United States publicly came out against mask-wearing — twice — before they shut him up.

And by the way, Jesus soundly chastised the Jews for their daily washing rituals, saying:

Mar 7:8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

Mar 7:9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

The Jewish handwashing rituals, as practiced for the last 2,000 years, are not Biblical. The vast majority of their ritual handwashing nonsense comes from the Mishnah and Talmud, two of the filthiest and most antichristian books ever published. So if you're defending that, you're truly on the wrong boat, as a Christian.

So learn your Bible a bit before you come rebuking a fellow Christian in Jesus' name. Your rebuke falls right back on you when you place yourself on the throne as judge and jury.

Watson is with info wars / Alex Jones and is a proven shill. This video should be all the proof anyone needs. He is wearing a hat with inverted pentagrams under the brim and it is plain to see. Furthermore, he is pushing (through shameless repetition) the use of the name Karen as a pejorative. Karen means "She Knows." This is classic inversion of meaning ie. double speak / new speak. He is conditioning people to refer to foolish, demented, brainwashed women as "she knows", and to say "ok" to them. As the author of this piece mentioned, it is not necessary for the initiate to understand the meaning of what's happening to them, only that he/she be made to unquestioningly perform the act of ritual, none-the-wiser. Hats off to the author!

Thank you, Paul. I hesitated to use the Paul Joseph Watson video, but felt it most adequately portrayed the "Karen" phenomena. The name "Karen," by the way, is diminutive of the name "Katherine," with both meaning "pure" or "purity" and not "she knows." I didn't believe, and still don't believe, that Watson's video was unnecessarily demeaning, considering the misery these "Karens" have been putting people through with their Pharisaical know-it-all self-appointment as enforcers of the masking and social distancing rituals.

I find many of Paul’s videos to be entertaining and wonderfully English sarcasm. Whilst I don’t agree with all of his opinions, that’s not unusual. For instance, I don’t agree with all of yours, or Alex Jones’, or some of the people I work with, or the government’s, or my wife’s, but that doesn’t prevent me from listening and making my own decisions. Steve,

I found you via Henry Makow's site; he reposted your article with a link and attribution to you.

That said, I must respectfully disagree with you about the form that the mark of the beast will take. The underlying Greek word for the mark in Rev. 13 is "charagma". That is an impression, a stamp; it'll be something physical and visible. It won't merely be a chip or simply a mental attitude. Texe Marrs also said this in his books on the New Age.

If you want to see something REALLY interesting, then go here: <http://news.mit.edu/2019/storing-vaccine-history-skin-1218>. It's an interesting and relevant project MIT is working on. Perhaps the mark could resemble this? Perhaps so...

In conclusion, the mark of the beast will be something physical; the Greek word that's translated for mark is "charagma", which signifies a stamp or impression. Besides, in accordance with all the occultic rituals WRT the COVID psyop, wouldn't TPTB and Satan want us to outwardly show our submission? Wouldn't people who "got with the program" be proud to show off their membership in "the club"? Wouldn't they be proud to virtue signal their conformity? How best to do this than to make the mark visible, i.e. a status symbol?

Those are my thoughts. Good night...

Reply.

The Mark of the Beast is part of the Satanic DECEPTION that must be overcome. You can hardly call a microchip, or an in-body data storage system, deceptive. It is what it is. And virtually ALL of Christianity is on the lookout for it.

No, the real mark of the beast will be something quite different than what's expected. "The serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field."

Satan is considerably smarter than to go with something virtually all Christians are already expecting.

I understand about the word charagma. But you can have physical marks as well as spiritual and/or psychological marks. For example, it can be said that a person was "psychologically scarred for life" if, say, they were molested as a child. That's a "mark" you cannot see with your eyes. Yet it's just as indelibly etched into the person as a physical mark would be.

Likewise, God "marks" His elect with a "seal" you can't see (Rev. 7:1-8). The word "seal" in those verses is translated from the Greek word sphragizo, meaning, very much like charagma, "to stamp with a signet or private mark for security or preservation." Yet you can't visibly SEE that "seal/stamp/mark" on any of God's servants, except through their ACTIONS, i.e., what they believe in, and work for. And that's because it's a spiritual mark.

Satan imitates God. He'll do as God does. He'll offer his "holy spirit" to the world, and those who take it will be "marked" by it (charagma). Not physically, but spiritually/mentally/emotionally. Read the short

https://www.enterthebible.org/Controls/feature/tool_etb_resource_display/resourcebox.aspx?selected_rid=210&original_id=66

And see also Ezekiel 9:2-4 to learn that God’s servants are indeed marked in the end days by the angel of the Lord. Yet you couldn’t find that mark on one, if you tried, because it’s not physical.

Again, Satan is considerably smarter than offering something physical that could easily be indentified as a mark. He’s a deceiver. Therefore, deception will be involved in it. And those who fall for the deception — hand and mind, so to speak — will have “taken the mark.”

Everything within me rises up against wearing a mask and submitting to fear and “group think.” Very insightful article into what is happening in the spiritual realm. Now I understand what is driving the hostility of “mask bulllys.”

Posting this on my FB wall–will gets lots of heat from my christian friends, I'm sure.

I've heard many people talk about the ritual elements we are seeing play out, but haven't heard it explained this thoroughly. Thanks very much, great information.

I haven't been playing into the covid shenanigans at all, but am sad to see so many in my world believing the lies being belted out on mainstram media.

So thankful for your insight.

Blessings, Tjoni

There is nothing in any of the Bible verses you quote to support the ideas you are alleging here. What a bunch of poppycock! No wonder people want nothing to do with Christianity. Wearing a mask does not stop you from proclaiming the gospel. Maybe if you did that and spent your time loving the people around you, you wouldn't have time to write such fallacy'

I write, because I DO love the people around me. I write to help them come out of the deception, which they can't do unless they can SEE it. So be all smug and self-righteous. I don't care. The Lord sees it. The Lord knows.

And...people want "nothing to do with Christianity" because Christianity has lost it's teeth and has become a distributor of pabulum rather than of the glorious Gospel which propelled Christianity worldwide in record time. Once Christianity settled in and quit preaching and doing the conquest theology of the Bible, as taught by Christ "

Finally, you wrote, "Wearing a mask does not stop you from proclaiming the gospel." Really? Are you honestly that dense?

Thank you, Steve, for a MOST informative article. (The link came to me via Jeff Berwick of Dollar Vigilante, and I have shared it widely.)

I do not consent. I will not consent – to mask-wearing, vaccination, or any of it. The likelihood is that all of the (compliant) corporations in this country (I live in England) will immediately follow some "law" (which applies to persons, not man and woman) and enforce mask-wearing in shops. I work in a food shop but I will NOT wear a mask. I may lose my livelihood, but I will not consent.
